

Centennial Community Recreation Association Membership Form

CCRA is a volunteer group of involved community members dedicated to the preservation, development and improvement of our neighbourhood. Your annual membership fee ensures that CCRA will continue to serve our community. Your membership supports:

Community representation

CCRA represents the Centennial community, speaking to all levels of government about local issues. We have been an active voice in preserving public park space, the creation of Adams Park, William Alexander Dempsey Echo Park and Port Union Community Recreation Centre. CCRA lobbied for the Waterfront Trail, Port Union Village Common, the conservation of Centennial Creek, the cleanup of the Johns-Manville site - and is providing a community voice during the upgrade to the Highland Creek Treatment Plant.

Community news

CCRA keeps you informed through our newsletter 10 months of the year. CCRA News shares local news and issues of interest to Centennial and the surrounding neighbourhoods, and offers space to our community and elected representatives.

Community events

CCRA is actively involved in the organization, planning and sponsorship of year 'round events like Earth Day, Summer Concerts in the Park, Heritage Day, Winterfest and the Waterfront Festival. We sponsor clubs, school events and activities, the Bill Dempsey Scholarship and awards for academic excellence and community involvement.

Community website

ccranews.com is our online resource for community information, history and resources, with up-to-date news and events for Centennial and beyond. Our e-news, Facebook and Twitter pages are updated with late-breaking news and community stories.
